

Jeff Chandler Attorney at Law

Jeff grew up in San Angelo and has been practicing in West Texas since his licensure in 2003. He is an accomplished litigation attorney with over ten years of experience including first-chair experience in numerous trials. Jeff began his legal career as a felony prosecutor with the Tom Green County District Attorney's Office. After prosecuting a multitude of felony cases, he joined Jackson Walker, LLP as a litigation associate, handling primarily insurance defense cases, before deciding to open his own law firm in 2007. Since that time, he has continued to manage his firm and handles mainly personal injury, commercial litigation and criminal defense matters.

Jeff received a BBA in Management from Angelo State University in 2000, and his JD from Texas Tech School of Law in 2003. He was elected to the State Bar of Texas Board of Directors in 2016 and is serving a three-year term. He served as President of the Tom Green County Bar Association in 2007-08 and was the Tom Green County Young Lawyers President in 2005-06. He is a former Texas Young Lawyers Association "TYLA" Director, served on the TYLA Executive Committee as Treasurer in 2009, and in 2010 was one of two young lawyers chosen by all other young lawyers across the State as a TYLA President-Elect Candidate. From 2012-14 he served as the TYLA liaison to the State Bar of Texas Litigation Section Council. He is a member of the Texas Trial Lawyers Assoc., Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Assoc., American Bar Assoc., and is an active member in the Concho Country Emmaus Community. He has served on numerous local boards such as the YMCA, Legal Aide of Northwest Texas Pro Bono Advisory Board, Project Janus, and the San Angelo Stock Show & Rodeo Premium Sale Committee. He is a 2007 graduate of Leadership San Angelo and in 2013, was selected an honoree of the San Angelo Standard-Times "20 Under 40" recognition program. He and his wife Lori have two children, Georgia and Jackson.
